Voter ID Questions

How do I provide photo ID with this form?

When you fill out this form, you will need to do one of the following:

- You can write your driver's license or state ID number on the application.
- OR You can attach a photocopy of your acceptable form of ID to this form.
 - The photocopy must be returned with the form, whether you return the documents in person, by mail, by email or by fax.
- OR You can attach your completed reasonable impediment certification to the application.
 - This is only to be used if you have a reasonable impediment, such as an inability to obtain an acceptable form of ID due to a disability or illness that prevents you from obtaining valid photographic identification or religious objection to being photographed.

What qualifies as acceptable photographic identification? Acceptable photographic identification can include one of the following types of ID.

- Nebraska Driver's License or State ID
- U.S. Passport
- Hospital, a home and community-based developmental disabilities services agency, assisted-living facility, hospice, intermediate skilled care facility, or nursing home record
- Military ID
- Tribal ID
- Nebraska political subdivision (state, county, city, public school, etc.)
- Nebraska college or university ID

Acceptable ID must have name and photo.

Acceptable ID can be expired.

Does not need to include an address/can contain an out-of-date address.

Do I need to photocopy both sides of my ID? No, you only need to photocopy the side of the ID that has your name and photo. It has to be legible enough to read your name and see your photo. It does not have to be printed in color.

What if I can't afford an ID? You can get a free state ID at the Nebraska DMV. You will need to bring documents confirming your identify and your address when applying for a state ID.

If you're missing your Nebraska birth certificate in order to get a free state ID, you can get a free certified copy of your birth certificate for voting purposes from the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS).

Note: You cannot use your birth certificate to vote. DHHS is providing a free certified copy of your birth certificate for voting purposes to obtain a state ID if you do not have a current Nebraska driver's license or state ID.

What if I can't get an ID? If you have a reasonable impediment, you can complete a certification instead of presenting acceptable photo ID. Reasonable impediments are:

- Inability to obtain an acceptable ID due to:
 - Disability or illness that prevents the voter from obtaining valid photographic identification; or
 - Lack of birth certificate or other required documents and an inability to obtain a birth certificate or other required documents without significant difficulty or expense; or
- Religious objection to being photographed

Where can I get a Reasonable Impediment Certification form?

You can get a reasonable impediment certification form from your county election official or at: VoterID.Nebraska.gov

What happens if I do not provide my driver's license or state ID number or a photocopy of acceptable ID or a reasonable impediment certification? If you do not provide any of the required identification, a ballot will not be issued to you. You can re-submit this form with your identification information to have a ballot mailed to you.
